Demo rider lesson cost for non WNYDA & CDCT members at $400*/weekend (must ride both days)

Demo rider lesson cost includes: One approximately 45-minute Lesson plus Stall and Facility Fee for each day. Riders may arrive between 4:30 -8:30 pm on Friday. Horses may be ridden in the large indoor arena Friday 4:30-8pm. The large indoor arena may also be used Saturday and Sunday between 6-8am, during breaks, or after the last ride of the day until 7 pm on Saturday.*

Our auditor and lesson fees can be offered at these affordable costs thanks to substantial support from The Ida Mizelle Fund*

Application Criteria:

-Auditor applications will be accepted with payment to hold spot until spots are filled per facility and COVID-19 requirements. No exceptions. Once full, a waitlist will be started.

-Demo rider applications will be accepted from July 15-August 31, 2024, with payment to hold spot. If not selected, the check will be destroyed or payment will be returned to applicant within two weeks after event completion.

-A total of 8 lessons will be held per day. Kristi Wysocki will be choosing demo riders based on the suitability of the demo rider/horse pair for the symposium.

-Demo riders and reserves will be notified by September 25, 2024. Reserve riders will be given a free audit for the weekend if the riding slot does not open as compensation for keeping their weekend open.

-Photographs of auditors and demo riders may be used for WNYDA newsletters and/or social media.

-Unfortunately, due to space limitations we will be unable to offer free audits for grooms.

-Vendors are welcome. Please contact Lauren Adelizi at ljdemkoski@yahoo.com if you wish to reserve a spot.
